ANNIE EDWARD is an interior design and joinery company exclusively making traditional English hand crafted living spaces and bespoke kitchens. We can provide a design service, manufacturing and installation for every room. We specialize in a range of styles from Traditional Country Shaker through to Modern English Town House.

We enjoy giving life to your visions – tailoring our designs around your needs, personality and lifestyle.

Currently, with our main base in Czech Republic, we are continuing to produce honest traditional British joinery with the knowledge and skills handed down from a rich heritage of New Forest cabinet makers, where our original workshop was established.

Whether a wooden or hand painted range, we put immense attention into every aesthetic and functional detail.

With pride, we work for people that appreciate top quality craftsmanship and timeless designs that are built to last.

SHEPARD KITCHEN

“This is my dream kitchen.
I love every detail.”

PEMBERTON KITCHEN

“The kitchen works really well and I love it!”

UPTOWN KITCHEN

“Small but mighty. It has the character we wanted.”

MILLHOUSE KITCHEN

“The whole family loves dining and cooking together now.”

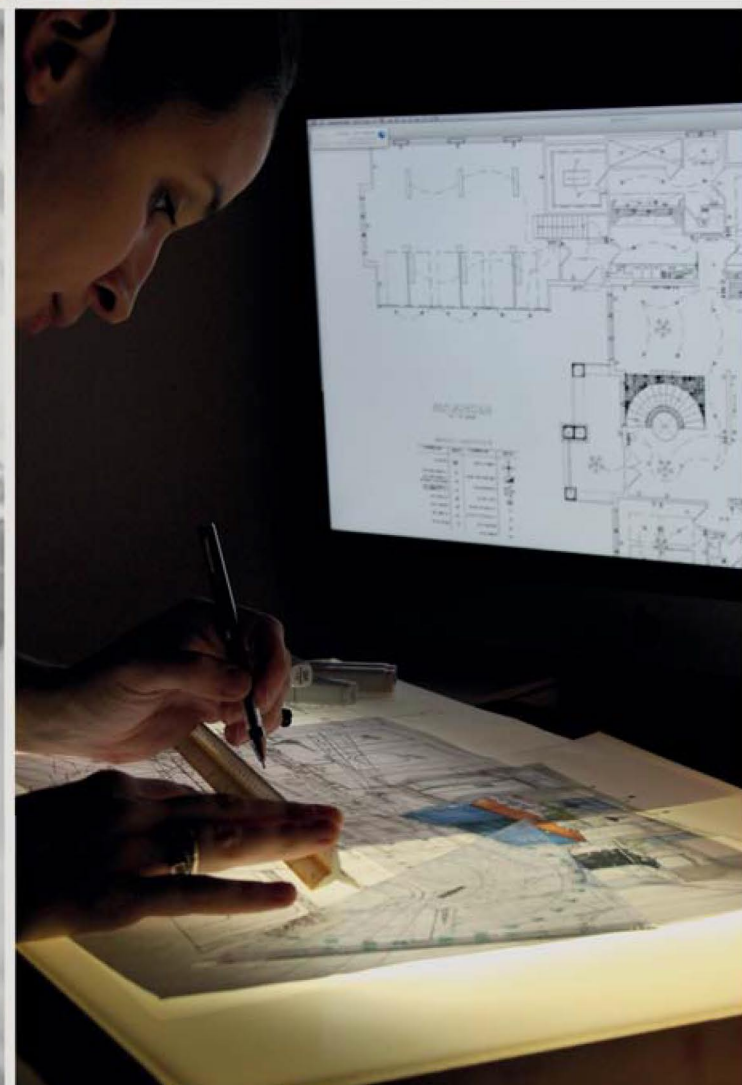

APPLETON KITCHEN

“What we were looking for was genuine hand crafted shaker kitchen.”
